

Triangle

CURRICULUM VITAE

Mark Spittlehouse

Trainer, Advocate, Support Worker, Intermediary

I have completed an assessed intermediary training programme run by Communicourt and Triangle. September 2011.

I am an accredited Physical intervention trainer specialising in restraint for children. I do advocacy work with young people with complex needs with a range of communication impairments.

I work with and help young people who have behavioural issues and physical impairments including communication difficulties.

Qualifications and Training

I have successfully completed training in expert witnessing and non-accredited intermediary.

I am an accredited trainer for physical interventions enabling me to train practitioners to safely intervene when working with violence and challenging behaviour.

I have completed a number of short courses including:
Communication and consultation
Challenging Behaviour
Interviewing young and disabled children

Areas of expertise

Direct communication and facilitation of communication

Relevant experience

Since 2009 I have worked directly with vulnerable children and have particular knowledge of learning disabilities, autism, epilepsy, brain injury, Cerebral palsy, physical disability and challenging behaviour.

Experience of legal work

I have supported in a number of ABE interviews and I am experienced in applying my skills within formal contexts including investigating interviews and ABE's