

Triangle

CURRICULUM VITAE

Rachel Arguile

Art Therapist

I am a practicing artist and recently qualified Art Therapist. I am currently in the process of registering with the HCPC (Health and Care Professions Council). I have had over seven years' experience working with children and adults with learning, behavioural, and developmental difficulties.

Qualifications/Training

Goldsmiths College, London Sept. 2010 – June 2013

MA Art Psychotherapy

University College Falmouth, Cornwall Sept. 2005 – June 2008

BA hons Graphic Design

University College Falmouth, Cornwall Sept 2004 – June 2005

Foundation Diploma in Art and Design

Employment

Artist/Organiser - Designing and running photography workshops for children with SEN and their families. Managing other staff involved in the project, updating the projects blog as well as curating an end of year exhibition, and designing and editing a photo book of the children's work. Sept. 2012 – August 2013

One to one PA work - I have been mentoring with a young lady on the autistic spectrum for over three years. August 2010 - Work Continuing

Classroom Support - Assisting with children on the SEN register either in small groups in the classroom or on an individual basis. Sept 2009 – July 2010

Facilitator - Supporting pupils with communication, learning, emotional, behavioural and developmental difficulties in the college environment as well as in their residential settings. June 2005 – July 2009

Experience

Sept. 2012 to June 2013 - I worked on a one to one basis to provide art therapy for children with emotional and/or behavioural difficulties in a Mainstream School.

Sep 2011 to June 2012 - I have worked on a one to one basis to provide art therapy for adults with learning difficulties in an NHS trust.

2011 – 2012 - I have Filmed and edited a 30minute documentary, together with the photography and design of an accompanying book. The project is called 'Marking Time' and is about autism in the context of Art Therapy.

July 2008 - I have Co-Run Art Therapy workshops for siblings of children with Special Educational Needs.

In November this year I have been invited to present two lectures at the Art Therapy Centre in Athens, Greece. I will also be providing support in some experiential workshops.