

Triangle

CURRICULUM VITAE

Lucy Turner

Developmental Psychologist and Counsellor

I am a committed, confident and creative primary teaching professional with a training specialism in the Early Years. I am a caring teacher committed to promoting independent learning skills with over five years work experience gained in supportive and educational environments. A cheerful, articulate and outgoing communicator who integrates easily into all environments and situations, using social skills, diplomacy and a sense of humour to establish productive interpersonal relationships.

Qualifications and Training:

Sept – June 2006 Goldsmiths University London P.G.C.E in Primary Education, specialism in the Early Years.

Sept 2000 – July 2002 University of Sussex Masters in Developmental Psychology

Core subjects include Cognitive, Emotional and Child Development

Sept 1996 – 1999 Roehampton Institute Psychology and Counselling BSc

Core subjects include Counselling theory and practice, Reflective Practice and Statistical Procedures.

Employment/Experience:

2008 – Present Developmental Psychologist

August 2006 – Present Nursery Teacher

2003-2005 Reliance Care Group

Training:

Publications Various SEN related inductions.

Speech and Drama Grade 8 Royal Academy of Speech and Drama