

CURRICULUM VITAE

Maxime Cole

Senior Support Worker/Youth Worker

Maxime has worked directly with children in different settings and with a background in residential childcare for over 20 years. She has particular expertise with children from 2 years of age who communicate without speech, children with a learning disability and with children presenting with challenging behaviour. Her specific area of expertise is working to ascertain children and young people's wishes and feelings and to provide advocacy and representation about the things that matter to them. She also has experience of observation and assessment of disabled children and young people.

Maxime has worked with Triangle for 15 years providing advocacy, leading group work, providing specialist support and contributing to a range of assessments including for family and criminal court proceedings. She is a director of Triangle and supervises other staff and provides training on Communication and Consultation, Challenging behaviour and Physical Interventions and Advocacy. She is a qualified Youth Worker and has completed the Triangle non-registered intermediary course. She also has a qualification in Understanding the Purpose and Role of an Independent Advocate.
